Spring Program: Success Strategies for Landing Your First Library Position

The Indiana Chapter of the American Society for Information Science & Technology invites you to join us and learn success strategies in applying for public and academic library positions!

Thursday, April 26, 2007

6:00 P.M. – 9:00 P.M.

Buca di Beppo, downtown Indianapolis

PROGRAM:

Landing that first library professional position can be a harrowing experience for new graduates. Our guest speakers will try to take some of the mystery and uncertainty out of the equation by telling you about what they, as library administrators, look for in new graduates for public and academic library positions. Find out how to get a leg up on your classmates and impress those hiring in today's competitive library market! Come network and socialize with new graduates and seasoned professionals alike from across Indiana at this fun event and learn some new techniques for your career search!
