The Information Society for the Information Age

...invites you to take part!

Dear student,

We, your colleagues around Europe, have recognized the need for establishing a European Student Chapter of ASIS&T and invite you to join us.

What is ASIS&T?

ASIS&T promotes the exchange of research and good practice amongst Library & Information Science professionals.

Why join us?

The benefits of membership include the following:

A student paper contest where the winner attends the annual ASIS&T meeting which is usually held in North America

Networking with European students of information science and related disciplines via our own mailing list and at organized meetings.

Building an infrastructure for student exchange/internships within Europe

Strengthened connections and networking opportunities with ASIS&T students throughout the world.

Possible student exchange/internships throughout the world.
